

THE 5 SUSTAINABILITY RULES OF CORPO SANTO HOTEL

Our sustainability rules have been carefully crafted with the intention of reducing environmental impact, conserving resources, and promoting a greener future. By following these rules, you not only enjoy a pleasant stay but also become an active partner in protecting the environment.

1st Rule: Our À La Carte Breakfast

Why It's Important: We value the environment and strive to minimize food waste. At Corpo Santo Hotel, our à la carte breakfast is a way to reduce food waste. Each dish is prepared with care, avoiding excess and ensuring that only what you desire is served.

2nd Rule: Assisting Us in Recycling

Why It's Important: We are committed to preserving our planet. In your room, you will find an recycle bins. This helps us effectively separate waste and recycle materials like paper and plastic. Your contribution is essential in reducing the ecological footprint.

3rd Rule: 3rd Rule: Bed Linen Change Upon Request

Why It's Important: We value sustainability and responsible resource usage. To help preserve the environment, we will only change the bed linens when you have the appropriate signage placed on the bed. This not only saves water and energy but also contributes to the preservation of natural resources. Together, we are working towards a more sustainable environment.

4th Rule: Towel Change Upon Request

Why It's Important: Save water and resources. We change bath towels only if you place them on the floor. This helps reduce water consumption and the amount of detergents used in laundering, positively impacting the environment.

5th Rule: Electronic Invoices

Why It's Important: Reduction of paper and waste. At Corpo Santo Hotel, we do not print the invoice for your stay unless you request it. We will send the invoice via email, avoiding paper waste. Your choice of electronic invoices contributes to tree preservation and waste reduction.

We appreciate your commitment to adhering to these sustainability rules. Every small action makes a difference, helping us create a healthier and more sustainable environment. Corpo Santo Hotel is dedicated to taking care of our planet and providing a conscientious stay for our guests.
